Hill International Receives Industry Achievement Award for the Port of Long Beach Pier G Metro Track Improvement and Wharf Repair Project

April 27, 2018

PHILADELPHIA, PA and LOS ANGELES, CA, April 27, 2018 – Hill International (NYSE:HIL), the global leader in managing construction risk, has received a 2018 Project Achievement Award from the Construction Management Association of America (CMAA) Southern California Chapter for the firm's work on the Port of Long Beach (POLB) Pier G Metro Track Improvement and Wharf Repair project in Long Beach, CA. The award recognizes accomplishments in construction management, quality, and cost and schedule management, as well as project complexity, innovation, customer service, and safety.

The CMAA Southern California Chapter presented Hill with the award in the category of Transportation/Infrastructure projects valued under $10 million. The ceremony took place at the 26th Annual Awards Gala in Los Angeles on April 26, 2018.

Michael B. Smith, Senior Vice President and Western Regional Manager for Hill's Project Management Group, said, "We're honored to receive recognition for this project. The award highlights our team's outstanding job managing the work with a proactive attitude during complex active rail operations and ship loading, and collaboratively and creatively meeting the needs of the Port and its customers."

Located on Pier G within the Metro Terminal and Pier G Rail Yard areas, the project improved critical elements of the tracks at the Metro facility, providing more efficient rail operations and sustaining ongoing bulk cargo shipments from the Port. Work included 7,750 linear feet of new track, 8 new switches, and 1 new crossover. The Hill team facilitated communication with POLB personnel and local stakeholders, implementing several resourceful solutions to maintain a concerted team environment, uninterrupted operations, and seamless navigation of simultaneous construction activities.

Hill International, with more than 3,000 professionals in more than 50 offices worldwide, provides program management, project management, construction management and other consulting services to clients in a variety of market sectors. Engineering News-Record magazine recently ranked Hill as the eighth-largest construction management firm in the United States.
