Hill International to Provide Project Management Services for $511 Million Brazilian Resort

July 20, 2018

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. and BAIA FORMOSA, Brazil, July 20, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Hill International (NYSE:HIL), the global leader in managing construction risk, announced today it was awarded a contract by Gremi International to provide project and construction management services for the $511 million Eco Estrela Resort in northeastern Brazil. This investment is the first phase of a total project estimated at $2 billion.

The project, in support of Brazil's growing tourism industry, features 4 miles of beachfront property with 191 villas operated by Six Senses Hotels Resorts Spas, a hospitality real estate company specializing in resort destinations incorporating natural surroundings.

During this three-year contract, Hill will provide project and construction management support for pre-construction and construction with a focus on minimizing risk, addressing challenges, and coordinating budgets and schedules.

Luis Lugo, Senior Vice President and Regional Manager, Southeast America/Caribbean/Latin America, for Hill's Project Management Group, said, "Gremi International and Six Senses are creating a resort that will offer tourists a one-of-a-kind experience, and Hill's expert project and construction management services will help realize their unique vision as-planned."

Hill International, with more than 3,000 professionals in more than 50 offices worldwide, provides program management, project management, construction management, and other consulting services to clients in a variety of market sectors. Engineering News-Record magazine recently ranked Hill as the eighth-largest construction management firm in the United States.
