Hill International Selected to Serve the Port of Long Beach for Seventh Consecutive Year

January 30, 2019

PHILADELPHIA, PA and LONG BEACH, CA – January 30, 2019 – Hill International (NYSE:HIL), the global leader in managing construction risk, announced today it has been selected to continue providing on-call construction management services to the Port of Long Beach. Hill's new contract represents the firm's seventh consecutive year supporting the Port.

The contract will involve full construction management services as determined necessary by the Port of Long Beach to successfully complete its projects. Services will include, but not be limited to, construction management and construction contract administration, field inspection, scheduling, cost estimating, labor compliance, SWPPP compliance training, constructability reviews, and document control. The contract is expected to involve support and management of the demolition of existing facilities (buildings and structures), intermodal rail yards, and roadways and bridges, as well as container terminal development, office and industrial buildings, navigation improvements, utilities, shore-to-ship power, grading and paving, and communication systems.

The second-busiest container seaport in the country, the Port of Long Beach handles trade valued at more than $194 billion annually, supports 1.4 million trade-related jobs, and encompasses 3,200 acres with 31 miles of waterfront, 10 piers, 62 berths, and 68 post-Panamax gantry cranes. In 2017, the Port handled more than 7.5 million container units, achieving the busiest year in its more than 100-year history.

"It is rewarding when a client as important as the Port of Long Beach validates your performance, work product, and service by selecting you for another assignment," said Hill's John Skoury, Senior Vice President and California Regional Manager, who serves as Project Principal for this contract. "Over the years, we have established a strong relationship with the Port. We understand their policies, procedures, and expectations, all of which allows us to provide our services efficiently and cost-effectively."
