Thomas L. Woodworth Joins Hill International as Vice President

MARLTON, N.J. & BELLEVUE, Wash., Sep 14, 2007 (BUSINESS WIRE) --

Hill International (Nasdaq:HINT), the worldwide construction consulting firm, announced today that Thomas L. Woodworth has joined the company as a Vice President of Information Management Solutions. Woodworth will manage the day-to-day operations of Hill's Information Management Solutions (IMS) group based in Bellevue, Washington while leading various project teams assigned to plan, design, and implement Electronic Data Management Systems (EDMS) on behalf of Hill's clients.

Before joining Hill, Woodworth held various positions including Technology Director, Business Solutions Manager and Technology Solutions Manager, for Parsons Information Systems. Before that he was a commissioned officer in the U.S. Army stationed in the United States, Bosnia and Iraq. Woodworth earned his B.S. in construction management from Ferris State University.

"Tom will play a significant role in the growth and development of our IMS operation," said Karen J. Mask, Senior Vice President with Hill. "He is a welcomed addition to our team," Mask added.

Hill International, with 1,500 employees in 70 offices worldwide, provides program management, project management, construction management, and construction claims services. Engineering News-Record magazine recently ranked Hill as the 10th largest construction management firm in the United States.
