Hill International Awarded Contract to Provide Program Support Services for SFO International Airport's Capital Improvement Plan

PHILADELPHIA and SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Hill International (NYSE:HIL), the global leader in managing construction risk, announced today it has received a contract from the City and County of San Francisco Airport Commission to provide Capital Program Support Services for San Francisco International Airport's (SFO) $7.3 billion Capital Improvement Program (CIP). The initial term will be $8.5 million for the first year of services, and can be renewed annually by SFO up to 4 additional years (not to exceed 5 years and $40 million).

"Hill specializes in helping our airport clients manage and control complex programs and projects like SFO's CIP," said Michael B. Smith, Senior Vice President and Western Regional Manager for Hill's Project Management Group. "We look forward to working on this critical CIP with SFO, and to helping SFO maintain and enhance their position as the Bay Area's premier gateway."

Hill's support services will comprise program-level reporting, cost and schedule development and analysis, cost estimating, construction and logistics management, process development and training, risk mitigation and maintenance of SFO's project management system. This support will help SFO to achieve the goals of the CIP as efficiently and effectively as possible. CIP goals include constructing new facilities, expanding infrastructure, augmenting security, developing systems functionality and performing maintenance for terminal, airfield and groundside components to accommodate increasing passenger growth.

Hill International (NYSE:HIL), with more than 3,000 professionals in more than 50 offices worldwide, provides program management, project management, construction management, and other consulting services primarily to the buildings, transportation, environmental, energy and industrial markets.
