Albert V. Romano Joins Hill International as Vice President and Phoenix Office Manager

MARLTON, N.J. and PHOENIX, Feb. 5, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Hill International (NYSE:HIL), the global leader in managing construction risk, announced today that Albert V. Romano has joined Hill's Project Management Group as Vice President and head of its Phoenix, Arizona office.

Romano has more than 32 years of engineering, infrastructure, and management experience. His professional experience includes project and program management, office and regional operations management, strategic and business growth, market segment leadership and client relationship management. Before joining Hill, he served as Vice President of Federal Infrastructure Services at ATCS, P.L.C. Prior to that, Romano worked with Michael Baker Jr. Inc. where he held several senior management and leadership positions over a 17-year period. Amongst his various roles, he served as Senior Vice President and West Area Manager for multiple, multi-disciplinary offices throughout the Western United States (including the Southwest and Alaska). Romano also served as Senior Program Principal for major federal projects and programs nationwide, as well as Market Services Manager for homeland security nationwide.

Romano earned his B.S. in civil engineering from the University of Maryland and his M.G.A. in general administration from the University of Maryland University College. He is a Certified Floodplain Manager and is actively involved in several professional organizations, having most recently served a three-year term as Chairman of the Board of Directors of The Infrastructure Security Partnership (TISP).

"Albert is very strong operations and business development professional," said Michael B. Smith, Senior Vice President and Western Regional Manager for Hill's Project Management Group. "We are sure that his leadership will lead to further growth for our Phoenix office," added Smith.

Hill International, with 3,500 employees in 110 offices worldwide, provides program management, project management, construction management and construction claims and consulting services. Engineering News-Record magazine recently ranked Hill as the 8th largest construction management firm in the United States.
